

Peter Ling Award for Business Leadership

Peter Ling owned and operated The Olde Angel Inn for many years. He was a business leader, a long-time Board Member of the Chamber of Commerce, and he gave generously of his time to the improvement and growth of Niagara-on-the-Lake's businesses and to the community. He was an inspiration and friend to many.

This award recognizes a Niagara-on-the-Lake business leader at the top of their field. The individual recipient of this award has distinguished him/herself through corporate leadership, a commitment to excellent service and community involvement. They inspire others within their industry and instill a sense of pride in being a business in Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Eligibility: The nominee has or had a business in Niagara-on-the-Lake and has shown leadership in their business' industry.

Criteria: Nominations should address the points set out in the description of the award. More specifically, nominations should include evidence of the business leader's success, commitment to corporate leadership and evidence of involvement or engagement in the larger industry.
